Question No. 1. Read the passage carefully and Answer the below mentioned questions according to the passage. (2X5 =10)

What is immediately needed today is the establishment of the World Government or an International Federation of Mankind. It is outmost necessity of the world today, and those entire people who wish to see all human being happy and prosperous naturally feel it keenly. Off course, at times we all feel that many of our problems of political, social and cultural life would soon come to an end. If there were one government all over the world. Travelers, businessmen, seekers of knowledge and teacher of righteousness know very well that great impediment and obstructions are faced by them when they passed from one country to another, exchange goods, gets information and make an effort to spread their good gospel among their fellow-men. In past religious sect divided one set of people into another, colour of the skin and construction of the body set one against the other. But today when the philosophical light has exploded the darkness that was created by the religious differences, and when the scientific knowledge falsified the theory of social superiority and when the modern inventions have enabled human beings of all religious views and of all races and colours to come into frequent contact with one another, it is the government of the various countries that keep people of one country apart from those of another. They create artificial barriers, unnatural distinctions, unhealthy isolation, unnecessary fears and danger in the mind of the common men who by the nature wants to live in friendship with their fellow men. But all these evils would cease to exist if there were one government all over the world.

- I. What is the urgent need of the world today?
- II. What type of problems people mostly face while passing from one country to another?
- III. What was the factor that set one man against another?
